

What is

Christ-Centered Communities (CCC) at Welborn Baptist Foundation?

We seek a flourishing community where neighbors experience the Gospel of Jesus Christ in word and deed through the loving, tangible, and collaborative work of local churches, Christ-Centered nonprofits, and individual Christ-followers.

CCC Partnerships

As a Christ-centered organization, the Welborn Baptist Foundation partners with Christian organizations whose vision, mission, and values are firmly grounded in Christian principles and teachings. These organizations seek to serve others while reflecting the love and teachings of Jesus Christ.

Current CCC Partnership Priorities

Place-based

Initiatives that are geographically defined, engage and empower communities, employ collaborative strategies, and aim for systemic change.

People-focused

Initiatives focused on equipping and empowering individuals and families with the resources and skills they need to flourish.

Missional Movement

Initiatives focused on educating, equipping, and mobilizing the Church (local churches, Christ-centered nonprofits, individual Christ-followers) into the community to demonstrate and proclaim the gospel.

The Change We Hope to See

- Empowered communities demonstrating positive and measurable change in quality of life and quality of place
- Measurable improvements in community-level data reflecting key areas such as health, education, employment, and economic mobility
- People are equipped and empowered to lead flourishing lives
- Christians actively engaged to demonstrate and proclaim the gospel with missional and cultural competency
